Interesting Teachers' Meeting.

The trachers in the C and D divisions of the public school of this city held one of their regular meetings at Webster school at haif-past one o'clock yesterday afternoon. The attendance was quite large and the exercises were full of interest. They were opened with singing by a class under the direction of Miss Etta Roberts. A class in reading, composed of pupils from Miss Roberts's school, was thoroughly drilled for the benefit of the teachers. Superintendent Anderson toschers. Superintendent Anderson talked with the class afterwards, asked questions about the lesson and explained how much could be made out of a read-

The most important feature of the meeting was the reading of a paper by Professor Hammond, of the Union school, on the method of teaching Arithmetic to pupils of primary grades; it was an excellent paper, and the review of it mails by Superintendent Anderson was also interesting, and he afterwards gave a talk on writing numbers. These meetings are proving very beneficial.

CHARLES DAVIS, the comedism, famous W. H. English, F. P. McNell and Oscar for his diamonds of hugo size, and his Seeley, from the Wiceling Base Ball Ascreation of "Alvis Joslin," is to be at the sociation. They had a modified proposition relative to securing a base of the tion relative to securing a lease of the grounds of the Association for base bal purposes during the coming season, to subpurposes during the coming season, to submit. The original proposition laid before the Pair Board a short time since, proposed to enclose the ball ground in the fair ground with a lence, to be put up in sections and to be entirely removed during the fair. The base ball club wanted entire control of their part of the ground during the playing season, and claimed that the ordinary revenue derived from pleases by the Fair Association would not be lessened, and offered $300 for the season. This offer was rejected.

THE MODIFIED PROPOSITION. THE MODIFIED PROPOSITION.

The offer made yesterday waived the fence question, withdrow all claim to the ground for July 4—a very valuable date, offered to waive a few other special dates if the Fair Association could designate them before the schedule was made out, and offer $400 as compensation. The Base Ball club offered to give to the Secretary of the State Fair before April 1st a printed schedule, showing when the club would of the State Fair before April 1st a printed cehedule, showing when the club would be away and also at home, an arrangement which would allow the State Fair to get in all its usual picnics without conflicting with the ball club, which would be away from home about three months.

No definite action was taken by the State Fair Association, but the matter was placed in the hands of a committee of five, consisting of Messrs. J. H. Hobbs, J. M. Kirk, C. P. Brown, W. H. Exley and Secretary Hook, who will meet the Wheeling club early next week and give a final answer. It is to be hoped that the offer of the club will be taken up, as it will only augment the Association's revenue, and does not need to conflict with a single picnic date. The club cannot afford gle picnic date. The club cannot afford to make any further concessions and will have to drop the matter if the fair people reject their terms.

PREPARING FOR THE NEXT PAIR. The matter of fixing the dates for the considerable discussion. There was a decided disposition to limit the exhibition cided disposition to limit the exhibition to five days, and that length of time was finally agreed upon. The dates were then fixed for September 5 to 9, both inclusive, the fair thus opening Monday morning send closing Friday night.

Past experience has demonstrated that holding the fairs over Saturday does not pay. People commence to get away with their exhibits early in the day and by noon there is nothing left worth seeing, while the expense for guards, police, etc., goes on the same as on other days.

THURSDAY'S ELECTION
The Talk of the Town-Who Has the Best BNEARLY A DISASTER.

of It After All?

The provalling tople of conversation yesterday in political and business circles was the municipal election of the previous day. There were innumerable explanations made of the vote of every ward; almost every politician, Republican and Democrat alike, had his own individua Democratalike, had his own individual theory to advance as to the why and wherefore of the result. The Public Building was filled all day long with these reasoners and the disagreeable weather making street corners decidedly uncomfortable for the oracles, they took refugation the saloons where the surprises and disappointments were carefully reviewed and disappointments were carefully reviewed and disappointments were carefully reviewed into the surprises and the surprises and the surprises and the surprises and the surprise an An important meeting of the Board of little circle of intimates that gathered and talked the situation over.

Taken all in all, the Democracy seems to feel that although its own and only Seabright has been made Mayor and its pot Smith again elevated to a chair he was never designed to fill, that its so-called victory is not a great one. Certainly it is not, when one contemplates the fact that the Council is one with a Rapublican majority of two in each branch—a majority of four on joint bailot, large cough to successfully control matters, and this successfully control matters, and this means a good deal. means a good deal.

The contemplation of these two facts from a Democratic standpoint is made still more sad, when it is remembered that from a Democratic standpoint is made still more and, when it is remembered that the Mayor has no patronage to dispense, and that the men nonlinated to compose the police force by the Chief of Police, will have to undergo the cerutiny and inspection of that Republican majority before being continued as such; and on the other hand, that the Council controls by elections, directly and indirectly, the dispensating of about $60,000 per annum in the way of salaries and pay rolls. It is presty safe to say that Republicans will have a large share of that for the next two years; the Democracy will not be in a position the next time to demand contributions from the gas house employes for the purpose of electing the head of a ticket and missing the Council.

The Democracy had enough money, judiciously expended, to have done better than it tid. It is calculated that not less than $3,000 was spent to defeat Clerk than it did. It is calculated that not less than $3,000 was spent to defeat Clerk Bowers it being feared that at the next election of a sheriff, he might prove a formidable candidate for any Democrat to fight against. And while money was spent freely, beer and swhisky especially on election day, was handed around in a lavish manner.

There is probably more truth than flection in the report that after having looked tion in the report that after having looked the field over the Democracy would gladly trade off one of the prizes for a better show at the city "pio" than seems to await it

The Only Haverly Coming.

A rare treat is promised those who visit the Opera House next Tuesday evening, when Haverly's famous mastodon minstrels make their appearance. Judging from newspaper criticisms and reports in general, they will eclipse anything recently seen in minstrelsy. All the cities in which this organization has appeared since its return from Eagland, are enthusisstic in their praise of this company, and judging from the list of people they will come up to, and even excel, all expectations. Special care has been taken by Mr. Haverly in arranging the programme, to depart as much as possible from the monotonous rut into which minstrelsy seems to have fallen. Thursday night Miss Caldwell and Miss Bowman, of Springfield, Ohio, who are visiting at Mr. Wheat's, and who occupied the room where the fire originated, thought they detected the odor of burning wood, but after exhaustive examination to trace of the fire could be discove.

A short time since the anthoritics at Washington have been in possession of information to the effect that large quantities at wood was found. Philadelphia. Although the fact was well assured it was found readingly difficult to place the responsibility for the contraband admissions, and great caution was exercised in tracing the matter up without putting the offenders on their guard. Energetic work with discretion reaped a rich large time. The method was nicely conceived and well executed up to the time of the seizure. A convenient loophole was found, by some means as yet unrevealed, in Philadelphia. Large quantities of wool, it is believed, found its way here, was picked over and reshipped to New York.

A clew was obtained as to the Canadian point of shipment, and special men were detailed to work the matter up. They cautiously worked their way until they felt certain that they had the right parties in sight, saw the wool loaded and accompanied it here. They did not neglect to convey secret official information regarding the transaction, the result being that a very select lot of wool was seized on board freight cars at the Willow street wharf. The material was consigned to a house

The material was consigned to a house doing business on Chestnut street, which had been apprised of the coming of the wool, and which had already forwarded a check for $500 in payment. This sum will be lest to the firm. The wool was conveyed to the seizure storehouse, and will be sold by the Treasury Department. The seizure bids fair to lead to a lively business scandal. An investigation will ensue for the purpose of finding out how it was possible for the transactions to become systematized under the very noses of the vigilant Government officials. That there has been a very convenient degree of laxity in some quarter appears on the surface.

"OLD JOHN BROWN,"

The Colored Men of Ohio Preparing Erect a Monument to His Memory. Columbus, O., Jan. 28.-A Convention of colored men of the State, having for ts object the preparation of a plan for erecting a monument to the memory of John Brown, met in the City Hall. Rev ames Poindexter, of this city, was made chairman, and Lewis Myers, of Massillon, secretary. The day was consumed in discussion. The Credential Committee consisted of Messrs. Williams, Cooley, Brooks, Robinson, Steptoe and Spencsr. The Committee on Resolutions, which was also instructed to draw up plans for the negrostrate of the constitution of permanent organization, consisted of Messrs. Williams, Murberry, Luppans

Messrs. Williams, Murberry, Luppans, Brooks, Steptoe, Artis and Thompson. Speeches were made by Rev. Poindexter, Rev. Alexander, Colonel Robert Harlan, member of the Legislature from Hamilton county, and others.

Opinion was divided as to the proper course to pursue, whether the colored people of the State should endeavor to build a monument or memorial hall, or whether an effort should be made to arouse national interest in the matter. After a long debate a motion made by Walter Thomas prevailed. The Committee on Plans was continued, with instructions to correspond and endeavor to arouse the interest of the people, and at the proper time issue a call for a National Convention. The meeting, adjourned after singing "John Brown's Body."

The Fishery Dispute. London, Jan. 28 .- In the House of Commons this afternoon Sir James Ferguson, Under Secretary of Foreign Afguson, Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs, stated that the Government was already in conference with the United States, through their representative Minister Phelps on the American fisheries question. The rights of the colonies, he eaid, would be strictly maintained, but this would be done with every desire to conciliate the Americans and most their views on the subject. Sir J. Ferguson further etated that a pacific dispatch concerning the vexed question had been received from the authorities at Washington which afforded material ground for the hope thut a final amicable settlement would be reached.

Salisbury and Phetps.

London, Jan. 28.—It is learned on good uthority that United States Minister Phelps had an interview of an hour's dura Phelps had an interview of an hour's duration with Lord Satasbury to-day, at the latter with the second state of cultivation. There is no second state of the second state of cultivation of the second state of cultivation states and canada. The meeting is said to have been of the most cordial nature, and Lord Salisbury expressed himself as highly gratified with the general tone of the American press and people in regard to the troubles. He also assured Minister Phelps that both England and Canada were equally desirous of a friendly and amicable settlement of the existing differences between Canada and the United States.

These seven beautiful boys owe their beauty of skin, luxuriance of hair, purity of blood, and freedom from heroilitary taint or humors to the celebrated CUTICURA REMEDIES.

Thousands of children are born into the world every day with some eczematous affection, such as little fellow's person, from the middle of his back little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, utly, painful, blotched and mallelous. We had no rett st night, no peace at day. Finally we were advised to try the Cutlcura Remedies. The effect was simply marvelous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been stacked. In my opiniou, your valuable remedies attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedles saved his life, and to-day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease
